Charlie
It was a hard struggle but we eventually made it.
I sure was fun living & hope you have the best of luck in the future.
Remember our fourth period lit class some fun. Well don't do anything I wouldn't do.

Dear Charlie,
This year we haven't seen each other very frequently and in the future we will probably be the same -- your entering a career and going to college.
Best wishes, Charlie,
to a great future.

Dear Charles
I'll be finally into it just think of all the fun that had in the temporary school and making our trip to Seattle the mountain and it was good old Puyallup. I will never forget the time that we got Buster and stole that turtle from Point 2 down we will have to of finishing and hunting together in the years to come. Best of luck always.

Dedication

There are many Clover Park boys who have gone into the service of their country—and there will be many more.

This 1951 Klahowya is dedicated, in all sincerity, to them.

We realize the perils they may one day endure, and though this is but a small token of appreciation we hope it will let them know that we can never forget them, as they will always be a part of Clover Park.

"HERE IS YOUR WAR"

By MARY JO LEONARD

With its humor, laughter, and tears;
With its visible and suppressed fears;
With its loneliness and longing,
From eerie dusk to glorious dawning—
Here is your war.

And who is fighting this war you say;
It's the boys you met and talked to every day.
The fellow from the country, the town and village too;
The Catholic, the Protestant, and the Jew—
Here is your war.

They don't want to be heroes any more than you or I;
They don't want to shed their blood, or in these strange countries die.
They only want to return home
And live in peace and security alone—
Here is your war.

Mother Earth is their sole protector,
And C rations and K rations their source of nectar.
The day is their scorching enemy, the night their frigid shield;
Under these conditions their sweet lives they yield—
Here is your war.

With its quiet graves and bloodstained hills
Beneath which lie our Joes, our Bobs and our Bills.
The endless line of men struggle on Till finally they are gone:
Leaving behind their fellow man
To carry on as best he can—
Here is your war.

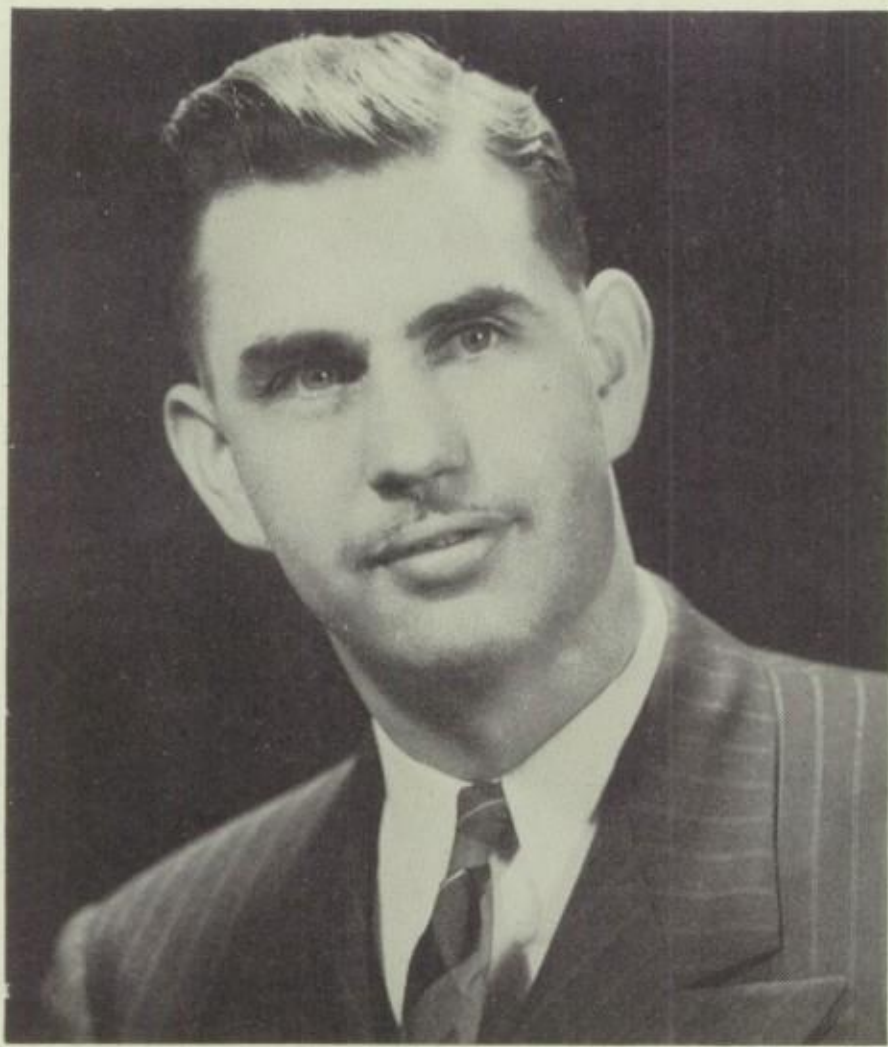

*Dear Charles,
Darn this pen.
I don't know you too well but I sure wish you the best of everything. always.
May the future hold much success &
happiness for you.
Luis Hill*

Dear Charlie,
Well here we are graduating from high school, remember our eighth grade graduation, it hardly seems possible that we're finally getting out. I sure hope this doesn't end our friendship. Be seeing you around. The best of luck goes with you.

Love,
Joyce M.

Administration

MR. HAROLD F. GRAY
Principal

MR. ARTHUR G. HUDTLOFF
Superintendent

A valuable asset to the Clover Park Student Body and the community is the school board. This year Mr. Edwin J. Johnson replaced Mr. John Dimmer as president of the board.

A few of the board's duties are to supervise activities carried on in the school district, to determine its policies, employ personnel and to adopt a budget.

The members of the board are elected every three years by the voters. These members donate their time and efforts without pay.

The main problem of the school board this year was finances. This problem was accentuated by the failure of the legislature to appropriate the necessary funds to carry on the educational program in the state, and still retain the standards previously held. Next year funds will still be a headache as it will still be difficult to carry on an appropriate program with the money that will be provided. Housing is another task the board will have to face next year as we are filled to overflowing now and a rise in population is expected. Superintendent Hudtloff has made several contacts with the Federal Government in order to secure aid in the construction of anticipated buildings.

The board has approved of the plans for a new junior high building which will be located at the northwest corner of the campus.

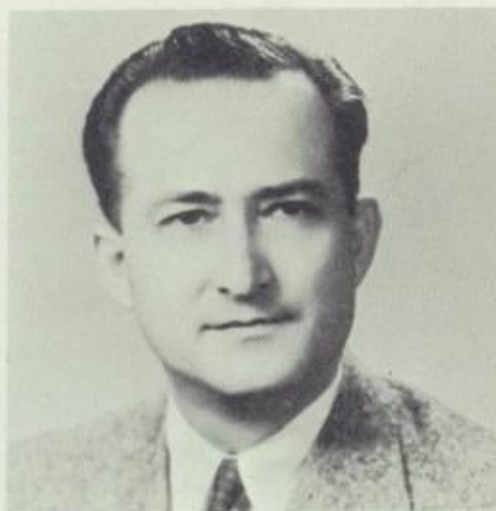

We of the student body realize the many difficulties with which the board is faced and we acknowledge and appreciate the time and work they have devoted to the school and our community.

With the patient and helpful supervision of Mrs. Wanda Sutich in the Main Office and Mrs. Louise Miller in the Guidance Office, some thirty students help carry on the office work of the school and learn office procedure.

In addition to the two offices, Mr. Oppelt, the Guidance Director, needs help at times to grade and record student tests.

Good typists are always in demand for sending for transcripts and writing letters for Boys' and Girls' Advisors and for typing the absentee list. The Main Office girls deliver bulletins each morning and do filing, besides the incidental tasks which may be given by Mr. Gray or Mr. Owens.

The work of attendance counselor, left vacant after the departure of Mr. Corbally, was ably taken over by Mr. Carl Fynboe in the Guidance Office.

Office training will be valuable especially to the girl who is anticipating a secretarial job or any work connected with office procedure.

This work requires quite a bit of time and the girls deserve thanks for sacrificing their study halls.

The Student Council provides students with a democratic form of self-government. The members are selected by popular vote of the students of the school.

For the school year of 1950-1951, the Student Council, under the leadership of Art Ford, handled efficiently, all business under its supervision. The officers were: Fred Farr, vice-president; Joan White, secretary of records; Phyllis Heimbecker, treasurer; Mary Ellen Phenneger, social secretary; Mike Orr, representative at large; Pat Kelly, Girl's Club President; Jim McCarthy, Boy's Club President; Barbara Waller, Senior Class President; Pat Kennedy, Junior Class President; Nancy Ingles, Sophomore Class President; Booth Gardener, Ninth Grade President; George Bolt, Eighth Grade President; Dick Phenneger, Junior High Representative at Large; Charles Sutherland, Secretary of Industry; Joan Magnusson, Klahowya Editor; and Everett Griggs, Clover Leaves Editor.

The council's work this summer started the school year with plans for the issuing of Student Handbooks to all students. It also devised a suggestion box in which the students place their opinions of school matters. A very large project that the A. S. B. undertakes is the Athletic Fund Drive which pays for the football field and athletic equipment. The council appointed numerous students for various duties. Jack Brooks was the choice for the head of the safety patrol squad. Dolores Christensen accepted the job as football concessions. Joyce Mattsen was chosen as assistant to the treasurer, Phyllis Heimbecker.

Council

Mary Ellen Phenneger started her work as Social Secretary by the very successful, "Get Acquainted Dance" and followed that with the Halloween dance. A new tradition was begun by the council and this was the Homecoming dance to which the alumni were cordially invited.

Another project that was undertaken was that of serving coffee and doughnuts to both teams at the finish of home games. Coke was served to the basketball players.

The new clubs installed at Clover Park must be given approval by the council. It reads the constitutions and approves them. The clubs ratified by the council were, the Foreign and National Affairs Club, Lettermen's Club, Pep Club, and the Howdy Club.

Last year's A. S. B. had a Band Aid Benefit Carnival. It was such a success that the 1950-1951 Council established it as an annual affair.

Three members of the council attended the University of Washington Student Leaders Conference and four of them met at Stadium, with members of the surrounding schools, to discuss problems each school had and to try and solve them. The members of the A. S. B. of Olympia came to visit Clover Park and to sit in on a meeting of the council. They also toured the school. Clover Park's council visited Renton.

The close of the council's year came with a picnic for the in-coming officers.

The senior class of 1951 has had a very busy and productive schedule. President Barbara Waller, with her cabinet and various committees, have worked hard performing the duties concerning graduation and other senior activities. Helping as vice-president was Jean Green; secretary, Dolores Christensen; treasurer, Patsy Hamm; and program chairman, Gail Taylor.

Seven or eight class meetings were held, in the library, where such matters as caps and gowns, senior pictures, announcements, and calling cards were discussed. Another meeting in the spring was devoted entirely to fun. Gail Taylor planned the entertaining program.

Our worthy advisors, Miss McDonnell and Mr. Wagley, helped plan the traditional senior functions, the picnic, banquet, Baccalaureate and graduation.

From the one hundred seventy-two graduates, seven honor students were chosen. They were selected on the basis of their grade point averages through three years of high school. The seniors who maintained an average above 3.5 were Kathleen Buchanan, Lawrence Ghilarducci, Jean Green, Anne Hartley, Bob Phillips, Margaret Ritchie, and Mary den Ouden.

172 Graduate in Maroon and White

The class of 1951, way back in the seventh grade, showed their upper classmen they had enthusiasm and ability to later become one of the most outstanding classes through the years. Starting off with a bang with Chuck O'Leary and Dick Baker, presidents of the seventh and eighth grades respectively, they went full force into class activities. Geraldine O'Connor and Julianne Crooks were chosen as Klahowya attendants.

Under the competent leadership of Dick Baker, the ninth grade class became the "kingpins" of the Junior High and made a wonderful success of "Heart's Delight." The dance was filled with fun and gaiety and stands as a pleasant memory in the minds of many. Pat Kelly and Mike Orr won the annual Kiwanis Inspirational Awards for outstanding service and sportsmanship; with Joan Magnusson, sparkling and vivacious Klahowya attendant.

The annual sophomore dance entitled "Aloha" flourished under the direction of Mary den Ouden and Clark Freigang, chairmen for the event. Music was provided by Bobbie Brock. The gym was gaily bedecked with bright colored flowers and Hawaiian leis for everyone.

"The Rose Room of Club 51" was chosen as the theme of the Junior Prom. It was carried out very successfully under the capable chairmanship of Dale Latham and Dick Baker.

Early in the year, tryouts and rehearsals were held for the annual Senior Class Play, "Youth Takes Over." Under the skillful direction of Virginia Heidbreder, the comedy play was a brilliant success.

Heading the list of successful events was the Senior Ball, held December 11 in the Girls' Gym. Much of the credit goes to Missy Muir and John Fitzpatrick, chairmen of the affair. The theme was "Sleigh Ride," decorated with snow balls and snow men. Iverson Cozart's band provided the music.

Gail Taylor was crowned Queen Gail I at the annual Klahowya Dance and Mary Ellen Phenneger and Rosemary Oliver were her senior attendants. Reigning at the Girls' Club Tolo was Doug Johnson.

On June 6, 1951, 172 graduated in the Boys' Gym at 8:00 P.M. The class colors, maroon and white, were carried throughout the decorations. The seniors elected to be attired in caps and gowns of maroon with intermingled maroon and white tassels. Baccalaureate services were held June 3.

Junior Class

The class of '52 began on the first rung of the ladder of success five years ago and have continued climbing it without any difficulty what-so-ever. The class this year has shown exceptional willingness and enthusiasm to participate in all sports and social events and to take part in the many varied activities a school this size offers.

This very active group of students was led this year by President, Pat Kennedy; Vice President, Topper Neilson; Secretary, Kay Engebretson; Treasurer, Janet Lizotte, and Sergeant-at-Arms, Max Spencer.

In the field of sports junior letter winners in football were Sherrill Stevens, Jim Bricker, Doug Babbit, Dick Weaver, Joe Jones, and Bill Jarmon. Joe Hall and Merritt Munson held the junior awards in basketball. The spring sports were led by Harold Hellyer, Dick Overgard, Paul Johnston, Dick Westfall, Dick Lawrenson, in track. Ron Chilton, Tim Spera, Ron Dihel, Merle Dihel, and Jim Bricker were the baseball enthusiasts. Max Spencer put forth his effort on the greens while Corky Keller, Brad Rehbock and Pat Kennedy showed their ability in tennis.

The highlight of the year was the annual Junior Prom, "Twilight Caprice," held April 28, co-chaired by Jeanne Burque and Tim Spera.

The talented juniors turned out to be Allison Myers, Joan Browning, Max Spencer, and Paul Reeder for their main roles in the all school play and Shirley Busching, Shirley Allen, Leslie Bryant and Tim Spera for their participation in the annual talent assembly.

All in all this class has certainly made an honorable name for itself at Clover Park and will again show its ability to make good next year as seniors on the top rung of the ladder of success.

Sophomore Class

Clover Park's Sophomore Class, the youngest group in the senior high section of the student body, has, in spirit of its youth, made a good name for itself in the school. It is an enthusiastic body with many interests and talents, and is well represented in the school by its leaders. Prominent among them are the class officers consisting of Nancy Ingles, President of the class; Dale Homestead, Vice President; Donna Cooper, Secretary; Jim Rivenes, Treasurer; Sally Potter, Program Chairman, and Gordon White, Sergeant-at-Arms. The class elected Joan Harris as Klahowya attendant and Jack Ellingson as duke of the Girls' Club Tolo, as representatives of looks and popularity. The sophomores set the pace for other classes in number. Their many activities were under the faithful guidance of Mr. Heytvelt, who helped them accomplish their duties very efficiently.

Their very successful booth at the school carnival was made up of talent from the class which consisted of musicians, and artists who drew caricatures of the participants of the carnival.

The class made a fine showing in sports when the sophomore girls' speedball team won the championship and also their volley-tennis team came in first after an undefeated season. Several athletic members have distinguished themselves in major sports activities while the intra-mural teams displayed fine competitive spirit. Outstanding in sports this year were Les Johnson and Doug Kerr in football, Del Brown and Tom Peterson in basketball, Bob Wallace and Del Brown in baseball, Wes Gilbertson in hockey, and Dave Steen in golf.

How casual can one get?

One of the biggest events of the year was the outstanding sophomore dance, which was held on May 25. Lorinda Dana and Dale Homestead were the co-chairmen for the affair. It was a farewell dance dedicated to the departing seniors.

Their record certainly shows that this class of '53 has not and will not fail to maintain the fine Clover Park traditions.

QUEEN: Gail Taylor

Klahowya Dance

"Harvest Moon" was the theme of Clover Park's eleventh annual Klahowya Dance. The girls' gym was bedecked in autumn decorations, beautifully done by Pat Kelly's decoration committee.

The highlight of the evening was the coronation, which was held at 9:30. Everyone gathered around to watch the procession led by the eighth grade attendant, Susan Covington, followed by Rita Darling, freshman; Joan Harris, sophomore; Alison Myers, junior; and Mary Ellen Phenneger and Rosemary Oliver, senior attendants, who accompanied the queen, Gail Taylor, to the elaborately decorated throne. Fred Farr read the proclamation before Art Ford, A.S.B. president, crowned Queen Gail I.

Patsy Hamm was general chairman, assisted by Miss Helmer, our Social Advisor, who worked hard in supervising and directing all the committees.

Junior Prom

The second formal dance of the year was held April 28, when the Junior class produced "Twilight Caprice." Co-chairmen Jeanne Burque and Tim Spera and their committees worked many long tedious hours planning and executing this dance.

Under the capable direction of Susan Romane, the decoration committee had its usual difficult problems to cope with.

Another beautiful job was done by Gloria Buren on publicity. The posters were some of the most attractive that had been made this year.

Of course after every dance the "debris" must be taken care of. Handling this was Dan McDowell and his ambitious committee. Leslie Bryant, head of the entertainment committee, had George Little, former Clover Park student, sing.

Madeline Merrill headed the refreshment committee and Gloria Kubis had charge of the tickets.

Homecoming

The newest addition to the round of school activities is the Homecoming basketball game and dance. The homecoming tradition was begun at Clover Park this year from a student suggestion and by council approval. This event took place on December 27, under the co-chairmanship of Joan White and Charles Sutherland.

The climax of the evening was the crowning of Queen Kathy the First. As her court, Kathy Chase had Marjory Cowden, a junior, and Paula Rantella, a sophomore. These girls, elected by the basketball team, were crowned by Larry Ghilarducci, team captain.

Much planning and hard work went into this first Homecoming at Clover Park, and much credit was due to the excellent work done by Mary Ellen Phenneger on decorations, Pat Kennedy tickets, Jim McCarthy refreshments, Barbara Waller entertainment, and Fred Farr, clean-up.

Senior Ball

"Sleigh Ride" was the very appropriate name for the annual Senior Ball, which was held December 8 in the girls' gym. Dancing started at nine to the music of Ivy Cozart's six-piece band.

Orchids go to Diane Muir and John Fitzpatrick, co-chairmen, for making this Senior Ball one of the best dances of the year.

The decorations, carried out by Ann Hartley and her hard-working committee, were the scenes one might see when on a sleigh ride, as the walls had a country scene, in deep snow, portrayed on them. There was a huge paper sleigh as a background for the orchestra. Large billowey snow balls seemed to float down from the canopy.

Committee chairmen were: Dolores Smith, publicity; Joane Corfman, refreshments; Helen Rust, tickets; Dana Hunter, cleanup, and Joan Blethen, entertainment.

Girls' Club Tolo

On Friday night, February 24, the big gym was transformed into a picture of Holland for the annual Girls' Club Tolo "Dutch Treat."

Erica Schalk was the general chairman.

Heading the important committee of decorations was Nancy Mackel. Nancy's group made giant tulips, wooden shoes, miniature windmills and wells, and the beautiful throne on which senior Doug Johnson was crowned king. His attendants were junior, Ronnie Dihel, Prince; and sophomore, Jack Ellingson, Duke. These decorations proved to be the making of the wonderful dance.

Other chairmen were: Margaret Ritchie, invitations; Donna Cooper, refreshments; Leslie Bryant, entertainment; Mary den Ouden, programs; Janice Tveten, cleanup; and Gloria Kubis, publicity.

Carnival

On May 11, 1951, the second annual Carnival was held from 6:00 to 11:00. Through the co-operation and hard work of about two hundred people the Carnival was a huge success. Twenty-two booths sponsored by organizations and classes gave everyone attending a wonderful time. Prizes of all kinds were had by all.

Joan White and Pat Kennedy headed the show as co-chairmen and both did an excellent job of making it a big success by helping make it possible to pay off the football and band uniform debts. The other chairmen were: Prizes, Mary den Ouden; Television Raffle, Doug Babbit; Publicity, Dolores Smith; Correspondence, Mary Jo Leonard; and clean-up, Jean Cameron and Gail Taylor.

Girls' Club

Again this year the Clover Park Girls' Club has been the busiest club in the school. It is difficult to comprehend the number of activities carried on by this active group under the capable leadership of President Pat Kelly.

A Friendship Club, or the Howdy Club, was formed by the Friendship committee under the chairmanship of Bonnie Walker who later was elected president of the club. This club endeavored to acquaint the new girls with the school, made and sent out get-well cards to girls absent from school for a week or more, and every Saturday sent two girls to Pierce County hospital to help in the children's ward.

"The Light of Understanding" was the theme for the annual Girls' Club Conference of the Puget Sound, which was held in December. Clover Park was host to cabinet members and their advisors from the other schools.

Under the capable hand of Erica Schalk, Social Chairman, the Girls' Club tolo "Dutch Treat" was a tremendous success. Erica also was the general chairman for the annual Mother-Daughter Tea and Style Show in May.

Varied and entertaining programs were planned for each monthly meeting by Florence Holroyd, Program Chairman. The girls had exchange programs with other girls' club in this vicinity. Another active committee was that of the Service Committee. With Sheila Ryan as chairman, this committee had charge of all the drives throughout the school year. Other members of the cabinet this year were Mary Zurfluh, Vice-President; Donna May, Secretary-Treasurer; Gloria Buren, Publicity; Jane Thompson and Madeline Merrill, Clerical; Janice Tveten, Standards; Bobby Trojan and Gail Attwood, Decoration and Appearance of the School.

Boys' Club

This year's Boys' Club was headed by the cabinet of President, Jim McCarthy; Vice-President, Tim Shera; Secretary-Treasurer, Ronald Dihel; Program Chairman, Doug Babbitt; and Sergeant-at-Arms, Charlie Sleade. The class representatives were, for the senior class, John Fitzpatrick; the junior class, Topper Nielson; and the sophomore class, Gordon White. Mr. Vinyard capably advised the cabinet in all its functions.

The club took the responsibility of making the phone books again this year. Bill Antonovich, chairman, organized the work that went into the book.

The Boxing Smoker this year was again the highlight of the money-making activities of the club. It featured eight bouts, five senior high and three junior high. Chairman Gordon White and manager and coach Mr. Hutton, worked together to make a success of this event.

The dance was another of the many activities of the club. The chairman and his committee named the dance "Spring Swing." It featured Bob Dickenson and his band.

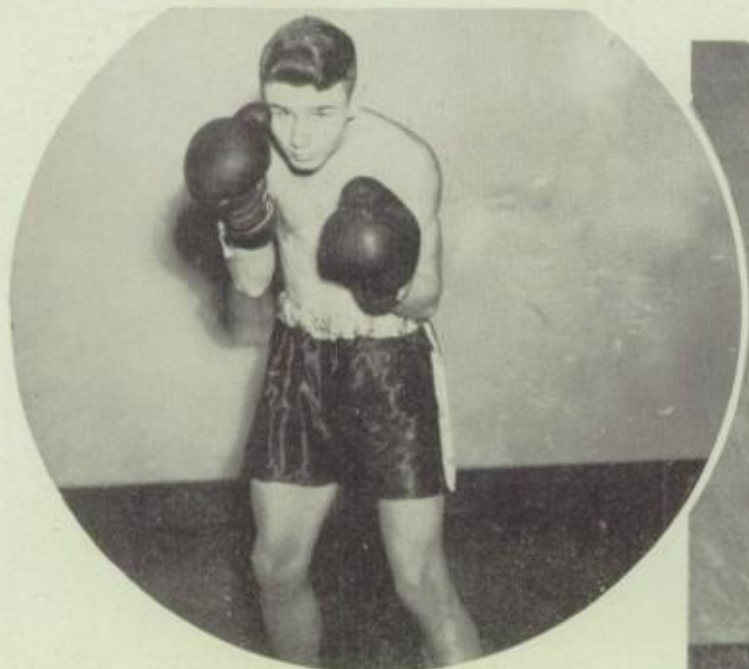

Tahatawa, headed by Clark Freigang, was also run very smoothly.

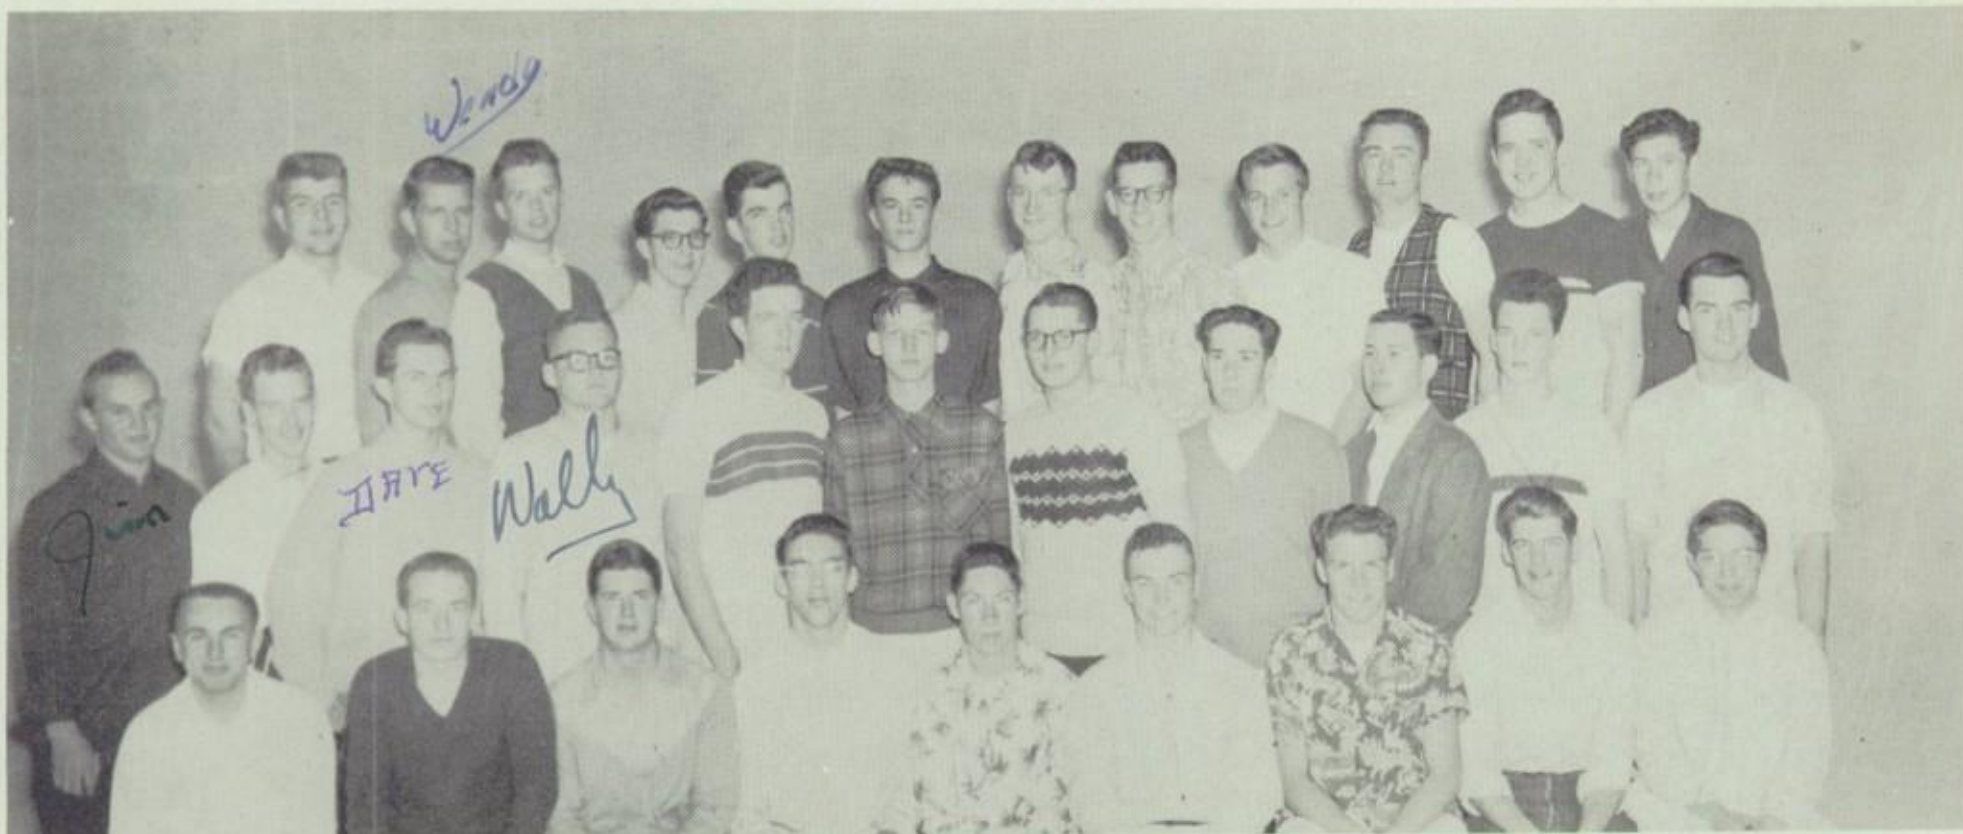

Doug Babbitt selected a fine group of programs for the regular meetings. The club was entertained by guest speakers, movies, and a talk on the sport of curling. They also had a meeting on accident prevention. A member of the state police and the county coronor gave a talk on what could happen and what they have seen happen on the highways.

Taking all of this year's activities into consideration, the Boys' Club has had a very successful year.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y has had a very good year under the supervision of Mr. Oppelt. Not only has it performed its usual services for assemblies and sending a member to Boys' State, but has shared in the buying of a movie camera for the school.

The club's basketball team had an excellent season by being undefeated in league play. They qualified for Northwest Y.M.C.A. playoffs, but were eliminated by successive defeats to Walla Walla and Portland. It was under the leadership of Mr. Fynboe that these boys made such a good showing.

In the social spotlight were the two dances given by the club. David Hayes was chairman of "Moonshine," which was held at Lakewood Center, and Richard Wallace headed the annual barn dance, "Dairy Farm Delight."

The officers for the year were: John Early, President; Larry Ghilarducci, vice-President; Frank Amann, Chaplain; Dana Hunter, Secretary; Gil Dobbe, Treasurer; and Richard Wallace, Sergeant at Arms.

Foreign and National Affairs Club

"To maintain and create interest in world affairs" is the purpose of the Foreign and National Affairs Club. The club has done this quite successfully, for under its auspices the radio program "Youth Views the News" was presented at Clover Park with four of the club's members comprising the panel. The panel members were Bill Antonovich, Topper Neilson, Bob Phillips, and Mary den Ouden.

The officers of the club are: President, Jim Bricker; Vice-President, Bill Antonovich; Treasurer, Topper Neilson; Secretary, Jeanne Burque; and Librarian, Bob Phillips.

The aim of the club is to offer its services whenever needed. Its main purpose is to promote life in a democracy. The club has proven to be a success.

Thespians

The Thespians are the inner circle of the Drama Club. As such they have had the privilege of being the sponsors of the Senior Class Play "Youth Takes Over," and the All-School Play "Turn Back the Clock."

The club officers are: President, Frank Amann; Vice-President, Clark Freigang; Secretary, Joyce Mattson, and Treasurer, Gail Taylor.

One of the many accomplishments of this club was a play "Remember the Dawn," which was presented during International Theater Month, in connection with the United Nation's American National Theatre and Academy. A few of the club's members attended a regional conference at the University of Washington and presented a one-act play, "Overtones," in the Penthouse Theatre. At the annual carnival the Thespians had the "Marriage Booth" which proved a great success.

In May the Thespians held their annual spring banquet and initiation at which time the "Best Thespian of the Year" was announced and various awards presented.

Drama Club

For all aspiring actors and actresses the term of service in the Drama Club is an apprenticeship. Its members seek one ultimate goal: to be in the Thespians. The Drama Club gives its members knowledge and background in the theatre.

The persons who are directing the club's activities this year are: President, Jean Green; Vice-President, Pat Franklin; Secretary, Annette George; Treasurer, Shirley Allen; Program Chairman, Pat Franklin; and Social Chairman, Jean Lavenson.

One of the activities of this club, during the year, was a theatre supper held at Joan Browning's home, after which the members of the club and the Thespians went to see Cole Porter's hit, "Kiss Me Kate."

Debate Club

An outstanding year, climaxed by the winning of fourth place in the state tournament at Washington State College and first place in A division, university style debate at the College of Puget Sound, has been completed by the Debate Club. Individual honors went to Sheila Ryan for tying for first place as best speaker in the women's division of debate at Washington State College and to Joe Kurtright who placed third in oratory at the State High School Forensic Tournament held at the College of Puget Sound.

The officers of this year's club have been: President, Sheila Ryan; Vice-President, Joe Kurtright; and Secretary-Treasurer, Pat Holcomb.

This year's successful Debate Club has been most capably directed by Mrs. Heidbreder, debate coach.

Safety Patrol

Just as in a city, a school must have efficient law enforcement. That is why the Washington State Patrol has authorized the Clover Park School District to appoint school safety patrol officers to maintain the safety and well being of its students.

The Washington School Safety Patrol has three primary purposes: preventing accidents at cross walks, preventing accidents on busses, and maintaining safety and discipline within the school building.

Official records show that the school accident rate decreased greatly since the inauguration of the patrol.

Qualified persons are chosen for duty on the patrol annually and are supervised by a Washington State Patrolman.

Assembly Committee

Throughout the year the purpose of the assembly committee has been to present the student body with a variety of programs. The committee consists of both faculty and student members. It is the duty of the three students to prepare all necessary equipment beforehand. When the entertainers arrive they act as guides and hostesses. Representing the faculty are Mrs. Gibson, as the advisor; Mrs. Heidbreder, Miss Walgren, and Mr. Taylor. The three student members are: Jean Green, publicity; Dolores Smith, secretary; and Clark Freigang, props; with Art Ford an ex-officio member.

Genius Club

Hopes to re-establish the Genius Club, a group organized to encourage the reading of good books, became a reality this year.

Advised by Miss McDonald, the club met every two weeks on Thursday to discuss books and authors. The members also selected the following officers for the year: Tom Picton, President; Ida Leedom, vice-President; Pat Kempston, Secretary-Treasurer, and Barbara Henton, Librarian.

Dues were paid according to grade level, nine cents for a ninth grader, ten cents for a tenth grader, etc. The funds were used to purchase for the club's library, books which could be checked out through the librarian.

Also planned was an initiation for members joining after the first of the year and the sponsorship of a carnival booth.

Tahatawa Committee

Tahatawa, the Saturday night Warrior rendezvous, completed one of its most successful years under the capable chairmanship of Clark Freigang, his able committee chairmen and Mr. Vinyard, advisor.

For just twenty-five cents an evening of fun and entertainment could be had by all. The evening's activities included checkers, dancing, volleyball, shuffleboard, basketball, movies, ping-pong and feature events. Refreshments were also available.

Assisting the chairman were David Hayes and Anne Hartley, refreshments; Mary Ellen Phenneger and Pati Hamilton, entertainment; David Thomson, games; Bill Gregory and Eric Ellingson, sports; and Dick Overgard, publicity. A newly formed ticket committee was handled by Jo Corfman, Jerrie O'Connor, Marigene Miller and Maxine MacMann. Thanks are due also to all the faculty members who so generously donated their time and services to Tahatawa.

Commercial Club

Those girls interested in business and administration found practical application for their training in Commercial Club membership.

All ticket sales and paper distribution was handled by the club. Members were on duty before and after school, during their lunch periods and at games, concerts and dances.

Student officer of the club was the secretary, who with her advisor, Mr. Creso, planned the sales shifts and staffs. Serving as secretary this year were Ceole Law, first semester; Nancy Pitzer, second semester, and Shirley Steele, second semester.

Torch Honor Society

The students you see in the halls at Clover Park wearing one bar and two bar pins and Torch pins are Torch Honor Society members. They have obtained membership by maintaining high scholastic goals. One member is selected at the end of the year by the members to receive the fifty dollar scholarship offered by the Society.

Mrs. Lackey was the faculty advisor offering helpful suggestions and helping the officers, Mary den Ouden, President; Joan Thompson, Vice-President, and Kathleen Buchanan, Secretary-Treasurer, to plan parties and meetings.

Some of the memorable activities of the Society during the year included the initiation of new members at the beginning of the year with the new members as contestants on a quiz show, the playing and talking of Bach done by Bob Phillips, and the picnic at the end of the year.

The Clover Park Torch Honor Society is looking forward to an even larger enrollment of students seeking higher scholastic goals and the good fellowship of school friends in future years.

Library Staff

The library staff is an organization devoted primarily to school service whose membership is open to all students interested in books. Under the supervision of library staff head Barbara Henton, assistant Jessie Emmett and advisor Miss McDonnell, staff members are assigned various tasks. Duties include shelving and checking out books, taking inventory, and arranging displays. A non-athletic letter may be earned after staff members have passed a test, completed one hundred four hours of library work and maintained regular attendance at staff meetings.

Socially speaking, the staff has held three parties this year. A Christmas party, an Easter egg hunt and an end of the year celebration were successfully carried out under the direction of staff members. The staff also sponsored a successful carnival booth.

BOOK ROOM: Charles Sutherland.

This year Charles Sutherland, who was Secretary of Industry, was in charge of the Bookroom. It was his duty to do all ordering of supplies and to do most of the selling. Charles has done an excellent job in carrying out these duties and he has donated a lot of his time to selling these supplies before and after school.

The student bookroom is entirely student directed and operated. Here Clover Park students are able to buy all the different school supplies that they need, such as pens, pencils, ink, paper, notebooks, and novelty items are also sold.

Mrs. Funk (Miss Naurbert) was the faculty adviser to the bookroom and helped Charles very much.

Rifle Club

Despite the fact that Rifle Club is only a minor sport, it had a comparatively large turnout and the teams placed high in city-wide competition.

The club held weekly turnouts in the south attic range and under the excellent direction of Mr. Swall the first team took second place in matches against Lincoln, Stadium and Bellarmine and the second team captured first place. Paul Johnston and Gary Parsons received individual shooting honors, being first and third in the city of Tacoma, respectively.

Officers for the year were Paul Johnston, president; Albert Phillips, vice-president; Barbara Swall, secretary; Ceole Law, treasurer; and Pete Dubacher, range officer.

Since the club is a member of the Junior National Association, teams and individuals were eligible to compete in the sectional matches. Albert Phillips took fifth place in the individual competition.

PRESIDENT: Barbara Tucker

Marlynd Homestead, Charles Sutherland, Bill Pugh.

Canopy Crew

For all the big dances, etc., that the Clover Park High School students want to put on, they have to call upon the ambitious canopy crew. Before any decorating can be done by the dance committees, the canopy must be in place.

This year Charles Sutherland directed the operation of the canopy crew. The other boys who did a good job getting the canopy up and successfully down again were Bill Pugh and Marlynd Homestead.

Boys' Letter Club

This year a brand new club has been introduced to Clover Park; it is the Boys' Letter Club. The cabinet consists of: President, Ron May; Vice-President, Russel Crask; Secretary-Treasurer, Dick Baker; Sergeant at Arms, Eddie McKechnie and Advisor, Mr. Austin.

In order to become an active member of the club one must be a varsity letter winner in a major sport or be a varsity manager. The club has now about forty-five members.

Some of the various activities the club has undertaken this year are: taking care of the lights and all the pre-game ceremonies at the football games, providing entertainment at basketball games and watching the doors. They were officials at all our home track meets.

The club originated the wearing of the new white letters and saw to it that none wore illegal letters or stripes.

Projection Squad

The projection squad has been kept busy because of the increasing demand for more visual education. Every period three boys are available to show pictures.

At the first of the year Mr. Trimble, the director, gave instructions on how to operate the projectors. The boys learned to operate several different machines and also the P. A. systems. These boys have helped to make our school instructions more enjoyable by showing educational films.

Row 1—Jim Schroeder, Dick Overgard, Bob Osborne, Jim Hubbard, Jack Brooks. Row 2—Merritt Monson, Dick Montgomery, Brad Rehbock, Ed McKechnie, Heinrich Patjens, Art Pavey.

Girls' Letter Club

Under the able leadership of Joyce Mattsen assisted by Miss Smith, this year's activities of the Girls' Letter Club ran off smoothly.

The only qualification for joining the Letter Club is that any girl who wants to join must have earned a letter during her senior high school years.

Active members must usher in three functions of the school, including all games, junior and senior high concerts, all school and senior class plays, senior graduation and baccalaureate, and other programs throughout the year. The girls perform these duties for the school and themselves faithfully year after year and a lot of thanks should be given for these services.

This year the Girls' Letter Club has about twenty-seven members.

Under the direction of Mr. Radabaugh and Manager Don Wolters, the Stage Crew put in another big year.

The boys worked very hard on such projects as building props for the school plays, and platforms for concerts and the Christmas Play. Also they helped in keeping the school in repair.

Many thanks should be given to these boys behind the scenes for their work.

Band

Under the baton of Mr. Renwick Taylor the band has performed this year at sports events, pep assemblies, concerts, and several other school and outside functions.

During the fall semester most of the band's time was spent in preparing for and playing at pep assemblies and home games, putting on a brilliant display in their new uniforms. They did a great deal of marching at the halves of the football games and several times used colored flashlights to help illustrate their formations.

The first band concert was held in March. It was a great success in the opinion of all who heard it.

By far the greatest undertaking of the band this year was the two nights' work they put in at the Boy Scout Circus. The circus was attended by at least four thousand each evening, and the band really gained in experience by playing before such a large crowd.

On May 5 bands from Lincoln, Aberdeen, Stadium, Enumclaw, Buckley, Eatonville and Clover Park met here in a music festival. The purpose of this festival was to bring the bands of the district together to listen to each other and hear what they were doing. It also helped to promote friendly relations between the schools and encouraged many to strive for higher goals.

Congratulations to the band and Mr. Taylor for their good work and great contribution to the school and students.

Senior Orchestra

This year the Senior Orchestra under the able direction of Miss Valois Wahlgren, has had a busy schedule. To start the year off they provided music for the Senior Class Play and a little later on performed at the Christmas Concert.

On March 16 the orchestra, in league with the band, presented a truly successful concert. In addition they were featured on a campus radio theatre broadcast.

Also in March, six members of the orchestra attended the Western Washington Festival Contest at Bremerton. Those attending were Linnea Carlson, Shirley Hellar, Ida Leedom, Pat Moran, Sharon Smith and Anna Belle Volz. Pat Moran, cello soloist, and a string quartet represented the Clover Park orchestra in the small ensemble division.

In April a small group of the orchestra played incidental music for the All School Play.

May was a busy month with Clover Park playing host to numerous other schools for a music festival. Clover Park Orchestra and Lincoln Orchestra performed separately and in a mass group directed by Walter C. Welke from the University of Washington.

In June, as always, they played for graduation.

This year the orchestra has shown much progress and the future looks better than ever.

Small Choir

The Small Choir, under the direction of Mr. Peter J. Bardon, spent much of its time traveling around various places and singing for different school organizations and clubs. The Nonettes and twenty selected boys' voices made up this mellow group totaling about forty.

Two important contingents of the choir were the boys' quartet and the girls' swing trio. Both these groups traveled with the Nonettes on their week tour to Canada. Making up the quartet were Allen Boyer, Chester Bradley, Kent Freeman, and Charles Ballenger. They presented a comic opera which was enjoyed by all who witnessed it. The trio was a big addition to the choir also, the members of which were Jann Robinson, Dale Latham, and Anita Hellbaum.

This year, for the first time in the history of Clover Park, the Small Choir had robes made for their more formal appearances. They are a beautiful green in accordance with the school colors and are truly an asset to the choir.

The Small Choir had a large part in the production of both the Christmas program and the Spring Concert.

The choir did a wonderful job this year and much of their success is attributed to the fine work of their director, Mr. Bardon.

Nonettes

With many invitations from cities in Washington and neighboring British Columbia, the Clover Park Nonettes are a very favored group in the Pacific Northwest.

Singing a wide variation of songs, the eighteen girls and their accompanist sang for various civic organizations, lodges, churches, schools, etc.

This select group of girls strive at all times for perfection. The girls under the direction of Peter J. Bardon worked hard for this goal this year.

The highlights of the year's activities included the five day tour of northern Washington and Vancouver, B. C. They appeared in high schools and sang for many civic groups.

Accompanying the girls for many of their appearances were the girls' swing trio and the boys' quartet.

The mothers of all the girls have formed a club called the "Momettes" and work with Mr. Bardon on many of the matters concerning dress, transportation, etc., and have proved to be a big help in these matters.

The Nonettes are especially praised for their singing with the Small Choir which again were featured in the Sunrise Service at Mountain View Memorial Park Easter morning. This group also appeared for engagements in and around Tacoma.

Senior Class Play

"YOUTH TAKES OVER"

The senior class this year presented "Youth Takes Over," a rollicking comedy by Betty Smith and Robert Finch. The play centered around Albert Williams (Frank Amann), the school bad boy. Albert's reputation for getting into trouble gave his teachers, Patricia Kelly, Margaret Ritchie, Dolores Smith, and the absent minded Mr. Andrews (Kent Kammerer), reason to blame him for any trouble at school. Dr. Pierson (Arthur Ford), the principal, tried out his theory of redemption through responsibility by letting Albert plan a way of raising money for the League for Young Citizens, headed by Mrs. Rathbone (Barbara Swall). Assisted by his friends Gus Landers (Donald Bagby), Ditsie Brice (Rosemary Oliver), and his girl friend, Snooky Phipps (Pati Hamilton), a carnival was presented. We musn't forget Swinburne Jones (Michael Orr), the sissy you love to hate.

The carnival seemed to be a great success until the lights went out and the evening's profits were stolen, including the money lost by Mrs. Rathbone on one of the carnival's crooked devices! Albert of course was blamed.

Throughout the last act, the postman (William Gregory) tried to find the owner of a very mysterious letter which turned out to be a bank receipt for the carnival money, deposited by Pop (Clark Freigang), the lovable old janitor.

Much credit goes to Mrs. Heidbreder, director, and her hard working production staff consisting of Joyce Mattsen, assistant to the director; Joan White, chairman of properties; Don Walters, stage manager; the stage crew; and many others who helped make the play a success.

All School Play

"TURN BACK THE CLOCK"

This year, "Turn Back the Clock," by Marijane and Joseph Hayes, was presented for the all-school play on April 20 and 21. This hilarious comedy was built around the universal truth that all generations are more or less alike after all. "Turn Back the Clock" had definite appeal for a high school audience as it was written entirely about the trials and tribulations of teen-agers.

The play opened with Mr. and Mrs. Hill on stage in the year 1951. Later it flashed back to 1928. The plot was centered around eighteen-year-old Evie Palmer, (Allison Myers), and her mother and father, played by Joan Browning and Duane Smith. As usual there was a bratty little sister portrayed by Gloria Kubis. The Palmer family also had a nineteen-year-old son, Larry, (Rodger Bille) who had two mad pursuers, Irene Isherwood (Heidi Doane), Maybelle Harson (Joan Hansen), Johnnie (Paul Reeder) and Charlie (Max Spencer), were Evie's two beaux, but Phyllis McSorely (Donna May), was out to reduce Evie's number to just Johnnie. Ollie, played by Booth Gardner, was the very juvenile brother of Babs Banister (Madeline Merrill). Good for laughs were Slim Bascombe (John Sayre), and Hilda, the Swedish maid (Pat Ryan).

Mrs. Virginia G. Heidbreder, the director of the play, claimed that the actors of "Turn Back the Clock" showed true thespian ability and that they learned their lines more quickly than any other cast in previous years.

The hard working production staff, headed by Clark Freigang, assistant to the director, really made the play a huge success.

Clover Leaves

The eyes and ears of Clover Park is our paper, the Clover Leaves. In its pages are found all the news of interest to the student body. Sports, dances, club affairs, and all school activities are faithfully reported in the paper. All of us know the thrill of seeing our name in the paper, and the expectant excitement as each new issue is handed out.

Let's step behind the scenes for a moment and watch the process which turns out the paper. As we enter the journalism room, a scene of frantic activity greets us. We immediately notice, however, a worried young man pacing back and forth gnashing his teeth. This is Everett Griggs, the Clover Leaves editor, on whose shoulders falls the responsibility of producing a good paper twice monthly. This job entails many duties; watching costs, and generally supervising the activities of the paper. Congratulations to Everett for doing an excellent job.

As the busy scene focuses, we notice three groups, composed largely of chattering girls. A head of blond hair emerging from one group proclaims Joan Magnusson, the feature editor. Joan's job is a taxing one as she must constantly search for original ideas to keep her page interesting, a feat which is often almost impossible. But Joan manages with a veteran efficiency. On Joan's staff are reporters Shirley Peck and Robert Watson.

Next we visit the news staff, headed by Mary Jo Leonard. Mary Jo is responsible for two pages, the front and back, which she must fill with interesting current news. It is Mary Jo and her staff—Jocelyn Taylor and Joan Browning—who have reported the activities of the school year.

In the corner we notice two lads who are topping each other's sports yarns. We all probably turn first to the sports page, it being of vital interest. Ron May, editor, and Dick Baker compose it. As both participate in many sports, they are able to write realistic first-hand accounts of our athletic events. Girls' sports are ably taken care of by Bonnie Walker.

The paper is paid for by advertising, and this ulcer-giving job belongs to Heidi Doane, the advertising manager. Heidi convinces people they should advertise in the Clover Leaves and must always produce enough ads to pay for the cost of printing the paper. She must then figure out where the ads should be placed and inform the page editors, who plan their page accordingly.

Joan Browning, the exchange editor, carries on an extensive exchange of papers with schools all over the country and one in Hawaii.

The guiding hand of the paper is Mrs. Stark, the advisor, to whom we are grateful for wise direction throughout the year. Taking care of the business advice are the business managers, Donna Axtell and Gail Minugh. We are also indebted to Mr. Gray and other faculty members who throughout the year have supplied information for the paper.

As we put away the last Clover Leaves, we also close a terrific school year at Clover Park.

Klahowya

JOAN MAGNUSSON
Editor

The 1951 Klahowya has finally been completed and distributed, after much strenuous and time-consuming work on the part of the editors and their efficient staffs. They are proud to present an annual which was designed to record the work and activities of the graduates of Clover Park and to keep fresh in their minds the memories of their happiest years.

LITERARY

This year's Literary Editor was Mary Jo Leonard who was in charge of assigning all articles, seeing that they were in on time, and making corrections and re-writes on them.

Even though the policy of this year's annual was to support more pictures and less writing, a lot of effort and time still had to be contributed.

Each staff member was assigned certain numbers of articles. He or she wrote them individually or re-assigned them to volunteers.

All members of the staff were most capable, willing, and co-operative in their efforts to donate their ability to the success of the Klahowya.

The photography detail of the Klahowya is by no means an easy job as the most emphasized feature of an annual is the pictures.

Jean Green and her staff took care of scheduling pictures, seeing that they were developed in proper sizes, correctly identifying them, and many other minute but essential details. Mr. Trimble donated much of his time to taking our pictures and his work is greatly appreciated by the entire staff.

ART

With ink pen in hand each of our artists, headed by Art Editor Kathy Chase, set to work to create the interesting and lovely division pages you see.

Using color and a modern art theme the uniqueness of the pages has added greatly to the liveliness and beauty of our annual.

The fact that to accomplish such a feat means ability and prowess is acknowledged by all. Kathy, Dolores Smith and Mary den Ouden have done an excellent job in the process of editing this yearbook.

BUSINESS

The tedious job of writing business letters, keeping accounts up to date and various other tasks belonged to the business editor, Margaret Ritchie, and her competent staff. Helping Margaret was the business advisor, Mr. Creso.

PUBLICITY

In charge of publicizing the Klahowya was Fred Farr and his staff who certainly did do just that. The Klahowya assembly had an interesting and original turn by having a drawing on a free annual besides numerous skits and songs advertising the Klahowya. The many posters and notices helped a great deal with sales; in fact, an additional two hundred annuals were ordered to accommodate the demand.

ADVERTISING

Under the leadership of John Fitzpatrick the advertising staff has sold $1,500 worth of advertisements. Because these adds help to pay for our annual this is an important and responsible job.

The duties of this staff was to contact places of business directly and sell them ad space. John and the staff has done an excellent job of making such contacts. Credit for arranging the make-up of the ads goes to John. Mr. Creso served also as advertising advisor.

The Warrior football squad of 1950 didn't have too many bright spots in the record books but did have many highlights on the field. Only winning one and tying one game, the Redmen finished in the second division, holding down the number eight spot.

The Warriors' lone win came over Kent-Meridian at the Royals' field, where the green wave put on a real show, winning 33 to 6. The Warriors were tied by Lake Washington 6 to 6 in the last few minutes of the ball game at Thompson Field. This was just one of the many games the Warriors were scored upon in the last few minutes of play. At Puyallup the Vikings scored a touchdown with a minute and a half left to play, to beat the Warriors 20 to 18, and Renton scored a 7 to 6 victory over C. P. at Thompson Field in the last seconds of the game. The Warrior gridders just couldn't seem to get over this last minute jinx.

Cheerleaders

The Clover Park yell team has been responsible for promoting the wonderful spirit displayed by the student body this year.

Janet Stith, Barbara Tucker, Norma Fagg, Heidi Doane and Frankie Amann have made one of the peppiest yell teams ever seen at Clover Park.

Their pep assemblies boosted the morale of both students and team and their presence at all home and away games improved the spirit tremendously.

The cheerleaders sponsored the chartering of buses to most away football and basketball games and the students readily took advantage of the opportunity to give Clover Park the reputation of having a great amount of spirit.

The cheerleaders also helped organize a Pep Club at Clover Park to promote still more pep. Barbara Tucker was later elected president.

Although no pep assemblies are held in the spring, two were held this year to encourage students to cheer on our track and baseball teams. Needless to say, both teams brought home championships and Clover Park is very proud of them.

Congratulations are due to a yell team who have brought more spirit and pep to the student body of Clover Park than has been shown for many years.

Award winners included Dick Baker and Joe Jones, All-City; Dick Wallace, second team All-Conference, and Dick Baker, honorable mention, All-Conference. The returning members of the squad elected Sherrill Stevens as the captain of their 1951 football squad.

Clover Park experienced a better than average 1950-51 hoop season by winning six and losing ten. Clover Park posted a double victory over the Kent-Meridian Royals and single wins over Auburn, White River, Lake Washington, and Renton.

The game that produced the most thrills was the Clover Park-White River contest. At the end of the regulation time the score was deadlocked at 36 to 36. In the overtime Dick Montgomery scored a field goal to win the ball game.

Clover Park made the best showing against the Highline Pirates who later became the state champions. Clover Park lost a heartbreaker to the Pirates by a 49 to 46 score.

In the scoring department the Warriors were led by Captain Larry Ghilarducci who hit for 186 points, followed closely by Dick Montgomery who got 174. Lanky Dana Hunter finished third with 153 points. Ghilarducci had the best average for the Redmen with 8.5 points per game. Dick Montgomery was second best with 7.91 points per game. Merritt Monson was the bad boy of the team with 76 violations called against him. He was followed closely by Del Brown with 65 violations. Dick Montgomery had the best accuracy at the free throw line by making 55 free throws. These statistics include all league, practice, and jamboree games that were played in the '50-51 season.

Clover Park will lose six boys via the graduation route. They are Larry Ghilarducci, Dana Hunter, Dick Montgomery, Mike Healy, Dick Baker, and Gil Dobbe.

In the annual Tacoma Athletic Commission sponsored Hoop-Go-Round Clover Park gained a third spot by defeating the Stadium Tigers.

The annual basketball banquet was held Wednesday, April 4, in the cafeteria. Larry Ghilarducci was given the honorary captain's award while Dick Montgomery was named inspirational award winner. Merritt Monson was chosen by his teammates to be the 1951-52 basketball captain.

A high-flying Clover Park track squad got off to a good start at Puyallup by defeating Puyallup and Stadium at the first meet of the season. The Warriors took nine first places and looked strong in every event. In the second meet, a double meet at Renton, the green wave went past Renton by a 61 to 52 margin. The Redmen took eight first places, but got more points by placing a lot of boys second and third. In the next meet, a home event with Sumner and Auburn, the Warriors chalked up 89 points to 27 for Sumner and 24 for Auburn. Twelve first places were won by the Warriors. At the Centralia Relays, the Clover Parkers captured the meet by beating a lot of major high schools in Western Washington. All Clover Park representatives at Centralia placed in at least one event.

The Redmen, coming home again, won a triangular meet with Renton and Lake Washington, 65½ points to Renton's 56½ and Lake Washington's 15½. The Warriors took ten firsts besides breaking two and tying one Thompson Field record. Bill Rieck bettered the old shot put record of 46 feet and 9 inches by making it 47 feet even. Bob Watson broke the high jump record of 5 feet 10¼ inches by jumping 5 feet 10¾ inches. Paul Johnston tied the high hurdle mark of 15.5 seconds. Clover Park then took second in the Highline Relays but set two new records in doing it. Bob Watson of the junior division bettered the old 100-yard dash record by 2/10 of a second, in running it in 10.6. The high-jumping relay team of Bob Watson, Larry Ghilarducci and Don Ellingson went 16 feet 6 inches; three inches better than the old mark.

Clover Park, defending champions of the Puget Sound League, opened its season with a number of practice games with Stadium, Lincoln and Eatonville. Clover Park broke even in these contests, winning three and losing three.

The starting lineup to date for the Warriors has been Ron Chilton, catcher; Ron May, pitcher; Dick Montgomery, first base; Don May and Bill Cammel, second base; Tommy Swindland, shortstop; Rich Wallace, third base; Tim Shera, left field; Ron Dihel, center field, and Delbert Brown, right field.

Clover Park played its league opening against Highline at Veterans Field. At the end of the regulation seven innings, the score was tied at two to two. Dick Montgomery opened the Warriors' last half of the eighth with a walk, went to second on a fielder's choice, advanced to third on a wild pitch and romped home with the winning run when Ron Chilton blasted a long single over the left fielder's head. Highline picked up eight hits while Clover Park got only two.

The next league game was played with Auburn. C. P. easily won this one by a 7 to 0 score. Auburn got four hits while C. P. gathered five. Delbert Brown hit a triple for the winner.

Puyallup proved to be the next victim of the Warriors. The Vikings were humbled by an 8 to 1 score. Dick Montgomery's triple in the first inning was the only extra base blow of the game. Clover Park got six hits while the Vikings got only two. Dick Wallace played an outstanding defensive game for the Warriors.

Clover Park traveled to Lake Washington for their fourth league game where the Warriors downed the Kangaroos 3 to 0. Don May was the leading hitter for the day with a double and single in three trips to the plate. Ron May limited Lake Washington to three hits while his team mates were gathering seven.

The next league game was played with White River. Clover Park defeated the Hornets 3 to 0. The Warriors picked up six hits while White River was gathering just one from May.

Clover Park has not yet finished their season but they have a very good chance of again winning a championship.

Sharpshooters

The Clover Park first rifle team has been fairly successful to date winning three out of seven matches held.

In the first match held, Lincoln took first place with 884 points, Clover Park was second with 871 points, Bellarmine third with 860 points and Stadium came in last with 814. High point honors for Clover Park were taken by Paul Johnston, Gary Parsons, Ceole Law, John Erickson, and Richard Harlock.

Clover Park's second match was held January 18. The Warriors took first place with 902 points while Lincoln was gathering 901 points for second place honors. Stadium placed third with 889, Bellarmine fourth with 862 and Everett lost with 860.

In the next two matches held, Clover Park took second place in both, finishing with 898 and 900 points, respectively. Paul Johnston took first place in the league this year and Gary Parsons took third in total points.

The rifle team is not considered a major sport but nevertheless, the members take just as much interest in the squad as a varsity sport.

Tennis

Clover Park started its tennis season by losing a close match to a good White River team by the score of 3 to 2. Corky Keller lost her first match in the girls' singles, while the boys' doubles and mixed doubles were taken by the Warriors. Brad Rehbock and Jim McCarthy were paired off in the boys' doubles and Ward Kern and Bev Newell played in the mixed doubles.

Traveling next to Kent-Meridian, the Warriors won their first match. Jim McCarthy and Fred Farr won the boys' doubles, while Erica Schalk and Bev Newell won the girls' doubles. Corky Keller won the girls' singles to give Clover Park its 3 points to the Royals' 2.

Coming back to their home court, the Warriors played their next match with Puyallup and were defeated by the score of 3 to 2. Bev Newell won the girls' singles and Fred Farr also won his singles match. But Pat Kennedy and Ward Kern lost in the boys' doubles, Margery Carlstrom and Nancy Pitzer were beaten in the girls' doubles and Puyallup also won the mixed doubles.

The team was coached by Miss Smith and consisted of: Corky Keller, Bev Newell, Erica Schalk, Nancy Pitzer, Margery Carlstrom, Carol Nelson, Fred Farr, Jim McCarthy, Ward Kern, Brad Rehbrock and Pat Kennedy.

Golf

The golf team of 1951 had a very successful year. The boys were helped considerably by two returning lettermen, Dana Hunter and Jim McCarthy. The more surprising players were Max Spencer, Dave Steen, Fred Farr, and Roy Reymore who proved to be very beneficial to the success of the divot diggers. Though lacking in experience these boys consistently showed good form.

After losing to Lincoln and winning from Stadium the Warriors went into league play. The first opposition met was from the Vikings of Puyallup. After several very close individual matches, the points were calculated and the outcome was a tie, $7\frac{1}{2}$ to $7\frac{1}{2}$.

Throughout the year the boys were shooting good scores and beating most opponents handily, many times by the score of 15 to 0.

The team was coached by Mr. Snyder and Mr. Zelanac. The latter replaced Mr. Snyder who was recalled into the air force.

G. A. A.

MISS MARY SMITH
Advisor

The girls at Clover Park have found that G. A. A. benefits them in two ways. First, the health giving recreation which results from exercise in moderation is needed and desired by today's modern girl. She receives satisfaction in achievement, in the joy of effort and she finds sports a way for sociability with many different types of people. One sport, having been done well, represents accomplishment; the satisfaction of having a goal or objective and being able to strive for it. Sports may not be creative in the sense of leaving something tangible as representing what you have done, but it is truly creative in the sense that it leaves its imprint on the personality of the individual.

Second, in relaxation, which for a few minutes or hours, allows us to forget the outside world and become whole heartedly interested in the sport in which we are participating.

The G. A. A. has always sponsored a program of team and individual sports. The fall and midwinter sports program consists of speedball, volleyball, tennis and badminton. The spring program consists of basketball, volleytennis, archery, and softball. Girls may turn out for as many sports as they want to and those turning out for seven of the eight will receive a letter at the end of the year. Each sport has a manager whose duty it is to organize the teams and set up her sport as either a round-robin tournament or a double elimination tournament. The managers for this year have been Susan Romane, basketball; Jeanne Burque, tennis; Mary Jean Miller, badminton; Cicely Dana, volleyball; Janet Stith, speedball; Joan Browning, volleytennis; and Phyllis Heimbecker, archery.

Altogether this year has been very successful for G. A. A. and the girls who took part in the many games and playoffs.

Basketball

In four weeks G. A. A. basketball tournouts were successfully completed. Two sophomore teams captained by Carol Nelson and Dorothy Turver tied for first place in the double elimination tournament. Mary Ellen Phenneger's seniors captured second place while third place went to Lorinda Dana's sophomore team.

An all-star team was chosen from each grade by basketball manager Susan Romane and Miss Smith. Play-offs were conducted at the last turnout. A sharp shooting sophomore team defeated the seniors and went on to eke out a victory over the junior six in a single elimination tournament.

Volleyball

Volleyball was the second sport this year and was received enthusiastically by the G. A. A. aspirants. This sport was managed by Cicely Dana.

Volleyball, rated as the favorite sport in G. A. A., again this year, had a very large turn-out. The participants were divided into thirteen teams of eight players each. Each grade had its various teams. This year the zig-zag rotation was used continually. Teams played thirty minute games, divided into halves with a five minute halftime. Both the girls' and boys' gyms were used, thus permitting most of the teams to participate at one time.

Varying from the last few years, a round-robin tournament was used to find the championship team, which turned out to be the sophomores. The competition was different, which made every game a championship one and made volleyball an interesting sport.

Tennis

G. A. A. tennis doubles were played in the fall this year with the members of each class competing against their classmates; those who turned out supplied their own equipment. The winners of the class then went on to play the winners of the other classes to determine the champions.

This double elimination tournament allowed those participating to play at least two matches and was headed by Jeanne Burque, G. A. A. tennis manager.

Badminton

Badminton is a sport that has speed, demand on physical reserve and competitive appeal, but its wide adaptability makes it well suited to all degrees of skill. This game can be played by all ages and by both sexes.

The girls that turned out this year for badminton played in a double elimination among their grade. Each girl was allowed two losses before being eliminated. The winners for the sophomores were Roberta Congdon and Margery Carlstrom, and the seniors, Kathy Chase and Marigene Miller. Badminton was directed by Marigene Miller.

Volleytennis, an annual spring sport, was managed this year by Joan Browning. There was one senior team, four junior teams, and three sophomore teams. There was a three-way tie for first place among the sophomore teams between Roberta Congdon, Donna Cooper, and Carol Nelson.

Turnouts were held during the last of February and the first of March in very cool weather out on the tennis courts. Volleytennis is a combination between volleyball and regular tennis, with the object being, as in the previously mentioned games, to hit the ball over the net and prevent the opposite side from returning it.

Archery

Before civilization, hunting and warfare was carried on with the use of bows and arrows but now archery is carried on as a sport and competition can be very keen as it is in G. A. A.

This year something different was tried for turning out; instead of partners, each girl was for herself. At each turn-out she shot twenty-four arrows and she turned in her scores which were added up. The girls, at the end of the archery turn-out, with the highest points in each class, were declared the winners for their classes.

The purpose of the G. A. A. archery is not to make Robin Hoods out of all the girls, but rather, to offer a greater variety of sports for the girls to turn out for throughout the school year.

Speedball

This year speedball has proven itself by starting out with a bang. This game is a combination of soccer and basketball with a few elements of football, including the punt and drop kick. It is played by two teams, each numbering eleven players, the number of players and their positions being the same as in soccer. The players advance the ball by dribbling, kicking, and volleying a "ground ball" and catching, throwing, and juggling a "fly ball" as in basketball. The manager of this sport was Janet Stith.

Health Center

Under the direction of Mrs. Burk, the Health Center has taken care of all students who became ill or were injured during school hours.

A stretcher crew has recently been organized as a branch of the Health Center to care for emergencies. The Health Center girls have done a fine job.

Cafeteria

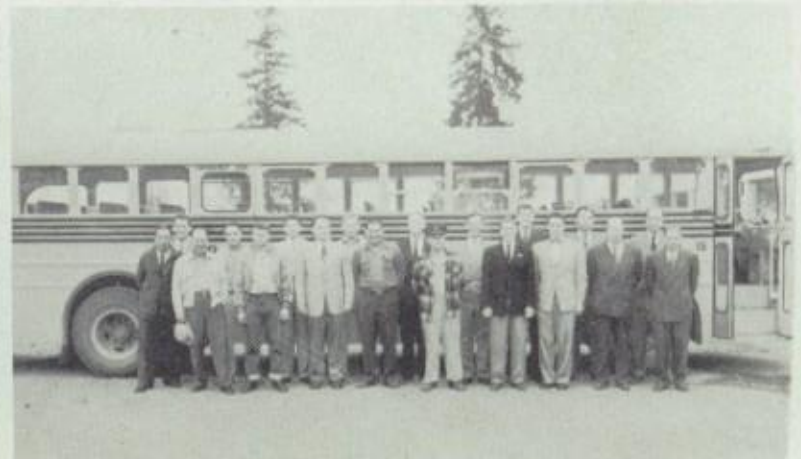

The cooks and cafeteria staff of our lunchroom have a tremendous job in feeding the student body of Clover Park. A third lunch has been inaugurated this year which gives longer hours but fewer customers to the cooks each lunch. They are to be commended for serving healthful and appetizing meals.

Buses and Maintenance

The custodians also have a big job in keeping the school building and grounds clean and in repair. They have done a beautiful job as the building always looks presentable.

There are many routes to be followed in taking all students to and from school each day. Therefore many buses and drivers must be employed. The drivers, having the responsibility of taking all students to school safely, are to be commended for their labor.

NINTH GRADE OFFICERS: Front—Sylvia Claybough, Booth Gardner, President; Bob Winn. Back row—Dick Phenneger, Mr. Burkhardt, advisor; Ken Peters.

Ninth Grade

From the first day of school till the last, the ninth grade class proved what an ambitious and active class they are. Again under the capable hand of Booth Gardner, this class worked smoothly and efficiently for a very successful year. Other officers included Bob Winn, Vice-President; Sylvia Claybough, Secretary-Treasurer; Ken Peters, Sergeant-at-Arms; and Mr. Burkhardt, Advisor.

When one of the biggest events of the school year, the Klahowya dance, arrived, the class of '54 elected Rita Darling as attendant to the queen. In other activities David Jarvis was prexy of the Boys' Club and Karen Martin held the gavel of the Girls' Club. On the student council were Booth Gardner and Dick Phenneger, junior high representatives at large.

A lot of vitality and spark was displayed by this class in athletics. The names of Bob Winn, Jim Madden, Don Price, Blain Smith, Paul Llewellyn, Weldon Hall, and Booth Gardner will be remembered. Not to be outdone by the boys, the girls took a robust part in girls' sports.

Again this year the freshmen voted for the Kiwanis Inspirational Award. The students elected were Sue Richey and Bob Winn. Their names were added to the plaque in the junior high hall and they were honored at a banquet.

Many faces from the ninth grade were also seen participating in the orchestra, band, choir, in the art classes, and on the junior high paper.

Being the oldest class of the junior high, the freshman class strove to set an example in everything they did and proved that they were preparing themselves to become a part of the senior high next year.

Eighth Grade

Entering Clover Park in September from the Navy Base School, the eighth grade class proved that even though they were the youngest members of the student body they were not to be forgotten. After again electing George Boldt as their president, the class of 55 settled down to an active, exciting year.

They started out with a bang by winning the Football Field Campaign by selling the most tickets. Mr. Zelenak's first period class was the roll room which sold the most tickets. When the Klahowya dance came into the limelight this class chose their representative, Sue Covington, to be the eighth grade member of the Queen's Court. Showing no lack of spirit the eighth graders participated in junior high sports; having many boys turning out in all the sports and the girls having teams in G. A. A.

Combining efforts with President Boldt were Gary Milgard, Jerry Petrone, Charles Ruth, and Mrs. Holte, their advisor, who made up the executive board which expertly guided the class of 55 to a very successful year.

As the oldest class of the junior high next year, this ambitious group will be the leaders and the incentives for a better junior high school.

Junior High Girls' Club

At the beginning of the year the eighth and ninth grade girls elected popular and capable Karen Martin as president of the Junior High Girls' Club. Also elected to Girls' Club offices were: Ritchie Baird, Vice-President; Georgia Haman, Secretary; and Sharon Link, Treasurer. With their advisor, Miss Taylor, they elected a cabinet then appointed Barbara Lee Roberts program chairman, Sylvia Claybough art chairman, Sue Richey, commercial and publicity chairman, and Pat Brydges, standards chairman.

Junior high girls and their mothers attended a style show sponsored by a Tacoma department store at the December meeting. Modeling the winter season clothes were Loy Ann McGee, Beverly Champagne, Lynn Shellburg, Gayle Switzer, Arlyss Olsen, Barbara Hoyt, Jeanette Lofgren, Gloria Steed, Sharon Bartlett, and Barbara Lee Roberts.

Highlighting the junior high social year was "Stardust," the junior high tolo under the chairmanship of Barbara Lee Roberts. The gym, decorated as a garden with glittering stars suspended from the canopy, carried out the theme as did the blue paper star tickets. Couples danced to the music of the juke box and the semi-formal affair proved very successful.

Other noteworthy projects were the sponsorship of a carnival booth and plans made for a mother-daughter tea patterned after that of the senior high.

Lucky Leaves

Recording news, personalities and comments of eighth and ninth grade students was the junior high paper Lucky Leaves, which carried on in traditional good style this year.

Those ninth grade students possessing above-average English grades, talent and interest in journalism were eligible to enroll in the journalism class. It was from this elective class under the instruction and advice of Miss Taylor, that the paper was published.

The paper's policy was prepared by Miss Taylor and the editors Robert Winn first semester and Judy Trojan second semester.

Positions of responsibility on the staff were those of the assistant editor who proof-read the copy and took on many of the editor's duties, the feature editor who was responsible for the student-faculty interviews, opinion polls and short stories; the girls' and boys' sports editors whose duties were to accurately report game highlights and scores of intra-mural and inter-scholastic competitions, and the art editor who stenciled headlines and drew up the art work for the front page. The humor editor had charge of jokes and puzzles, and the trading of papers and correspondence with other schools was handled by the exchange editor.

The entire staff should be commended on this excellent publication.

Junior High Boys' Club

The Junior High Boys' Club is an organization for any eighth or ninth grade boy who wishes to participate in its activities.

Monthly meetings were presided over by President Pat Jarvis with the assistance of vice-President, Don Price; Secretary, Steve Merrill; Treasurer, Weldon Hall; and Mr. Herron, advisor.

Two meetings were of special interest: they were Mr. David Wards' discussion entitled "The Prospect of Juvenile Delinquency" and the showing of the East-West football game and several Clover Park basketball games.

A wire game booth was sponsored by the club at the carnival. Those helping in the booth were officers Pat Jarvis, Don Price, Steve Merrill and Weldon Hall. Others assisting were members Mike Brock, Kenny Heimbecker, Gene Farnsworth, Jim Scarce, Joe Ghilarducci, Clifford Alton, Jim Madden and Bill Martin.

Junior Band

The 1950-51 junior band proved to be one of the finest Clover Park has seen. Spurred on by Mr. Renwick Taylor, the director, they presented some very fine performances.

Some of the things they did in the course of the year were: playing at all home football and basketball games and all of the pep assemblies and performing at the annual junior high concert.

The concert this year was given on April 13 and was a big success. The band played four numbers and the trumpet trio, composed of James Sweeny, John Call and Stan Tutlis, played one selection.

At a music concert held in Bremerton, the trio received an excellent rating.

The object of the junior band is to train the members to fill in vacancies for the senior band. This is being done as fifteen junior high students are already in senior band. Even with the loss of these people, Mr. Taylor believes this year's band was one of the best he has seen.

Junior Chorus

Each year the junior high chorus has had many enthusiastic members, each showing his ability in class every day. For their effort and hard work they give one concert which is complementary to the public and all parents and guests are welcome. This year there were approximately fifty girls in the chorus.

The annual concert was held Friday, April 27, in the boys' gymnasium at 8:00. The junior high chorus, combined with the junior high band and the newly formed orchestra, made it one of the biggest and finest events of the year for the junior high.

For their part in the concert the junior high chorus sang a group of five numbers. They were: "Maids of Ciapas," "The Song of India," "The Dance," "Bendemeers Stream," and "Abide with Me." Accompanists for the chorus were Ricky Kirk and Nancy Carlin. As a special number Ricky Kirk played "The Flight of the Bumblebee" by Rimsky-Korsakov. The chorus was under the direction of Mrs. Shirley Nalle.

CHEERLEADERS: Sue Richey, Martha Allen, Loy Ann McGee.

The Junior High football team was champion this year of the Southern Division of the Puget Sound Junior High League and tied for the league championship. Mr. Brown, their coach, fielded a well-rounded eleven, with plenty of speed and drive. Don Price, Jim Madden and Kenny Peters were always threats when they carried the ball, while Booth Gardner and Gary Wamberg played some good games at end positions. On the rest of the line Blaine Smith, Dave Crockett, Charles Ruth, and Ralph Sattler played good ball. Don Hare was a good defensive player.

Playing Puyallup here, the Indians won by the score of 21 to 0. Puyallup had much the bigger team but still was pushed all over the field. The game at Puyallup was also won by the Indians 20 to 0. Again the determination and drive of the Indians won over size.

The Indians travelled to Buckley to play the White River Hornets. The Indians won this game by two touchdowns. The game with White River at home the Indians again won by the score of 20 to 6. In the two games with the Sumner Junior High team, the Indians won both of these 12 to 0 and 12 to 6.

ROBIN HOPKINS
Manager

AWARD WINNERS: Jim Madden, Coach Brown, Kenny Peters.

These scores finished up an undefeated season for the Indians and gave them the Southern Division championship. The game for the league championship was played with Renton at Renton. The Indians scored first and led until the last seven seconds of the game, then Renton pushed over the tying score and the game ended in a tie 6 to 6.

The Clover Park Junior High basketball squad which was ably coached by Mr. Don Herron, outshone the senior high hoop team by winning seven and losing but three.

The junior Warriors' first win of the season came against George Dewey Junior High School in Bremerton. The final score read: Clover Park 29, Dewey 20. High point men were Kenny Peters and Gary Wamberg with nine points each.

C. P. proceeded to trounce the Sumner five, overpowering them 32 to 19. Gary Wamberg led the scorers with 13 while Kenny Peters was close behind with 12.

The next contest proved to be one of the most thrilling games of the year. With but a few minutes to play, the score stood deadlocked, Clover Park 26, Puyallup 26. Kenny Peters connected on a long one-hander which gave the Warriors a lead they never lost. The ending score read: Clover Park 28, Puyallup 27.

MR. HERRON
Coach

AWARD WINNERS: Don Price, Bob Winn.

MANAGERS: George Harkness, Ricky Kirk.

C. P. played two straight contests with the Hornets from White River, winning both games 39 to 33 and 34 to 21.

The Warriors beat Puyallup next in a well-played 39 to 37 contest.

Here the junior high needed but one game to win the Southern Division title but lost to Sumner 45 to 29.

The last game of the season Clover Park dropped to White River 38 to 14.

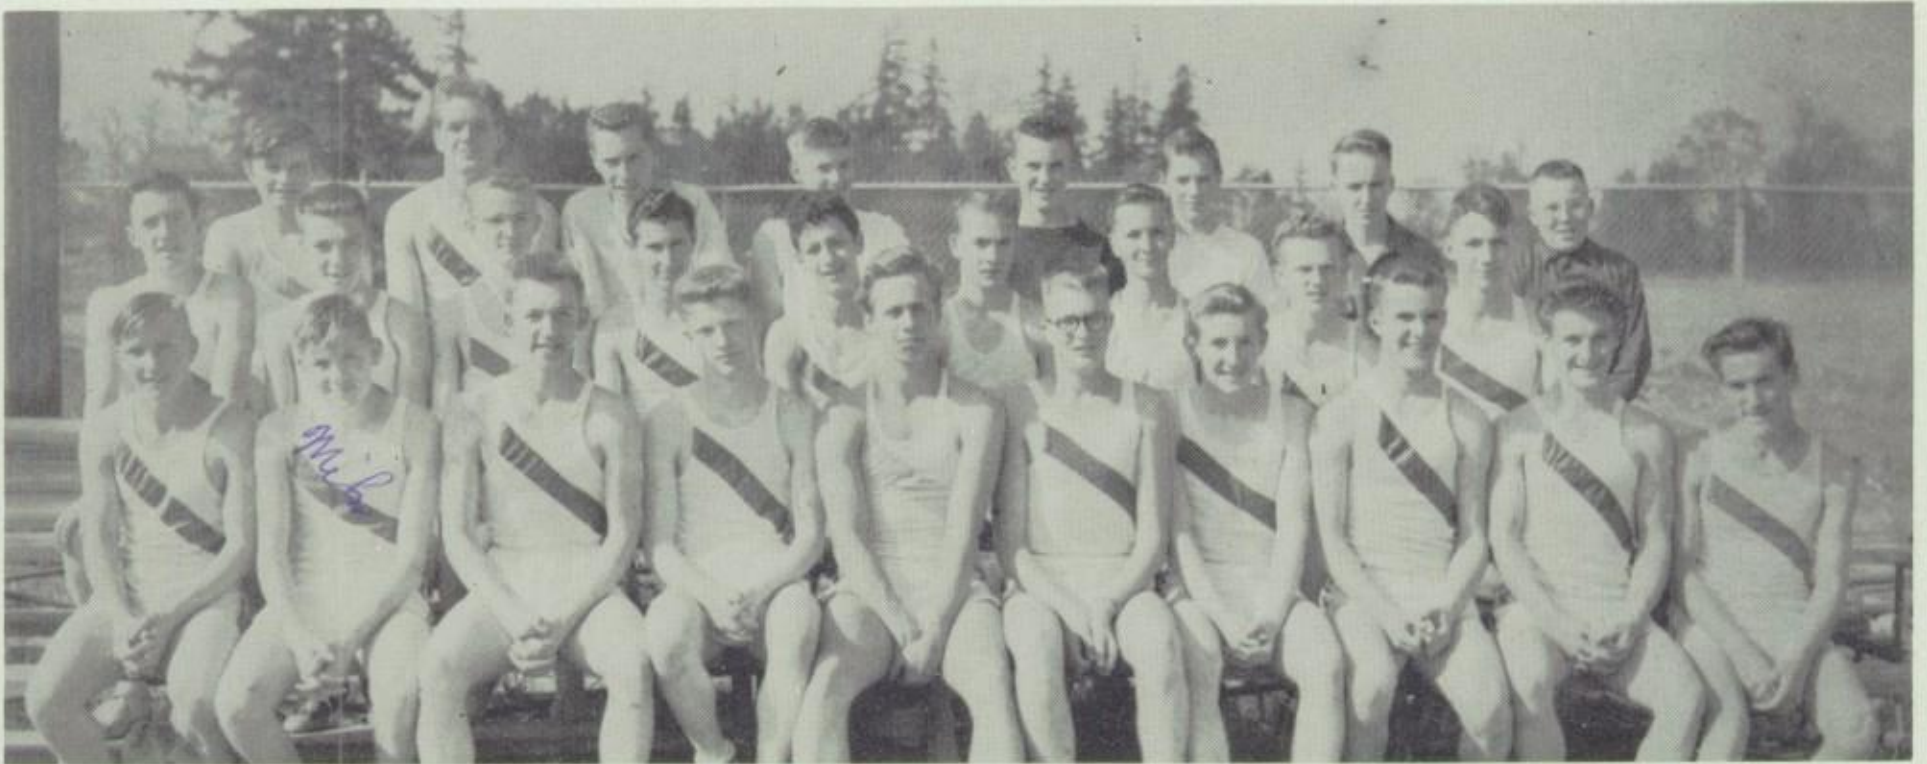

Don Price races with the ball against Puyallup.

Clover Park's Junior High track team has been fairly successful this season with a two-won, two-lost record.

The junior high opened its season with a 48½ to 21 win over Puyallup. First places were taken by Don Price in the high jump, Blaine Smith in shot put, and Jim Madden in the broad jump.

Clover Park's second meet was with Renton. The Indians proved to have too much power for C. P. and defeated them 39½ to 29½. Weldon Hall gained a first in the 660 along with Blaine Smith in the shot put and the 880 relay team.

The outstanding performance this year has been Weldon Hall's winning of the 660. Hall has yet to be defeated in this race.

The top point winners for the junior high have been Don Price, Weldon Hall, Jim Madden, Blaine Smith and Harry Harnish.

The field events include the shot put, broad jump, high jump, and pole vault. Some of the winning events are the 108-yard low hurdles, 440 and 880-yard relays and the 100-yard dash.

The season is not yet over and the junior Warriors still have a better than average chance to win the championship. They still meet with White River, Highline, and Kent-Meridian. There is also the qualifying and conference meet. Clover Park has a good chance to send a few boys to the conference meet.

A lot of credit for the success of this year's track squad should be given to the boys who turn out but are not good enough to compete in the track events. These are the boys who help the point winners get in shape.

Girls' Sports

The junior high girls' program of intra-mural sports this year included line soccer, volleyball, basketball, and softball.

A new set of captains was selected by Mrs. Mace for each sport. In this way many girls had the opportunity to practice leadership. Also, in addition to learning to play the games well and to develop good team work, the girls had a chance to practice keeping score, keeping time, refereeing, and umpiring in the various sports.

To earn a letter a girl must be present after school and take an active part in all sports. In an extreme circumstance a girl may have one excused absence during the whole year. She must turn out for each sport offered and play in at least part of each game.

There were about fifty ninth grade girls and thirty eighth grade girls turning out regularly this year. Of these, about forty were awarded letters.

The captains from the ninth grade for the line soccer teams were: Arlyss Olson, Dolores Sutherland, Suzanne Hardgrove and Lorella Williams. The eighth grade captains were Peggy Miller and Catherine Conrad. The championship was won by Lorella Williams' team.

The ninth grade volleyball captains were Barbara Roberts, Dorothy Voight, Wynne Steel and Martha Mottan. From the eighth grade the captains were Carol Curtis, Elaine Boyer and Sharon Staples. The final games were cancelled because the gym was not available to the girls.

The ninth grade basketball captains were Rita Darling, Janet Mattsen, Sue Richey, Barbara Hoyt, Jean Zurfluh and Arlene Jackson. The eighth grade basketball captains were Sue Covington and Carol Strickland. There was a tie for the championship in the ninth grade between Sue Richey's and Barbara Hoyt's teams. For the eighth grade the championship was won by Sue Covington's team.

The baseball captains from the ninth grade were Gwen Stucker, Pat Brydes, Edna Wiley and Sandra Grondahl. The eighth grade had only enough players for one team so a different girl was chosen captain for each game.

The eighth grade playday was held here at Clover Park. They played host to twelve girls from each of the following schools for various kinds of relays: Buckley, Enumclaw, Puyallup, and Auburn.

The Winner!

The Student Life staff of the 1951 Klahowya has worked hard to produce a section which is representative of the entire student body. The pictures you see on the following pages are the shots you took and turned in to be judged. Choosing a winner from the many excellent pictures was difficult but here is our choice, for which Joe Hall received a free Klahowya.
